Hobbies: She loved fishing, singing and listening to music, making Bible bags, and whittling. She loved to sing with her long-time friend Butchie; a friendship of over 50 years. She also loved singing with her cousin James "Jimmie" Brown. The one thing that her family should remember is that whenever her and Jimmie were in the same space, they were going to "DUET". She had a mouth for cussing you out and showing her love. She loved the casino, going there with her ROAD DOG Amanda McAdam.

On April 1, 2014, she was blessed to receive a liver transplant. She was put on dialysis for kidney failure, during which she had a doctor by the name of Dr. Pooja Malhotra. Over the years, Dr. Molhotra and Ann developed a loving relationship. She continued her care for Tobi even after she moved to Georgia and being involved in her care. She touched the lives of doctors, nurses, and medical staff that cared for her; RN Tara at Jonesboro Clinic, RN Zelda, who tried till the very end to get Tobi to communicate.

“TOBI” has joined in eternal rest with her late parents, Sylvia Strickland and Nathan Vaughn, Sr., her loving daughter, Al-Nisa Vaughn, and her Heaven-sent Sister Sylvia Strickland-Woodson.
