

Calvin J. Hall

December 13, 1984 - April 1, 2025

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Calvin J. Hall, who departed this life on Tuesday, April 1st, 2025. Born on Thursday, December 13th, 1984, in Frankfurt, Germany, Calvin was a spirited and adventurous soul who lived life to the fullest.

Calvin was the beloved son of Joan Marie Hall of McDonough, GA and Alvin Jerome Hall Sr. A devoted father, he leaves behind his cherished daughter, Angel Grace Hall, and his loving brother, Alvin Hall Jr. Calvin was predeceased by his grandmother, Shirley Ketcher, his uncle, Jeff Grubzack, and his cousin, Eric Singer.

Growing up with military parents, Calvin developed a passion for travel and a love for the outdoors. His adventurous spirit was evident in his enthusiasm for BMX motocross racing, baseball, and soccer. He was also known for his fondness for driving his Lincoln, which he treated as more than just a car, but a companion on his many journeys.

Family and friends are invited to celebrate Calvin's life and share memories during a visitation at Cremation Care of Georgia in Conyers, GA, on Saturday, April 12th, 2025, from 10:00 am to 12:00 pm.

Calvin's zest for life and his infectious enthusiasm will be dearly missed by all who knew him. His legacy of adventure, love for the outdoors, and the joy he brought to those around him will remain in our hearts forever.

Arrangements have been thoughtfully provided by Cremation Care of Georgia. Calvin's family extends their deepest gratitude for the support and comfort received during this difficult time.

“ I’ll never forget the time we spent together brother, and the meaningful conversations we had. You always knew how to make people laugh. You helped me in the program when I truly needed help. You were and forever will be a good man with a precious soul. I am confident I will see you again on the other side of eternity brother. My sincerest respects and condolences go out to your family, especially your Mother & Father. You will be dearly missed and memories cherished. God bless you CJ.

“ I am one uncle of CJ on his mom’s side. My family (and some of his cousins...Matt, Emily, Thea, and Lily) have kept very fond memories of CJ and Alvin as they spent many times as young kids together with their grandmother when sis Joan was deployed. One thing that I always remember about CJ is that he asked lots of questions when something interested him. He would not move off the subject until he understood it completely. He was totally focused. When he was satisfied that all his questions were answered, the little frown and pursed lips went away and he went back to whatever he was doing before. From my whole Singer family, we love and will miss you CJ.

“ Calvin looked so handsome and the tributes speak to the memories of someone who was very loved and vibrant. I didn't know him, but I know his mother, Joan. I know that Joan raised an amazing son and loved him with all of her heart. I send my prayers to all of you who also knew and loved Calvin.

“ Uncle Sean sends his love and respect to friends and family. Sorry I am unable to attend. CJ will be missed by us all. He drove me to my new home in Florida almost 5 years ago and we had a great time. His next stop was to go see Angel. Here is a photo of him at Dixie Belle Motel in Port St Joe..he was so happy to see the water. You will be missed.

I realize we never met before, and maybe you never even heard of me, but I hope you don't mind me reaching out to express my sincerest condolences regarding your son. We spent a lot of time together in FCADC and built a relationship that involved spiritual principle's, honor and integrity. He helped motivate me to exercise more, he made me a better chess player. He is so smart and talented, and I miss him, but I can't even begin to imagine how much you must miss him. Please find comfort in knowing I am praying for you and your family. Thank you for bringing such an amazing man into the world. God bless you.
