“ I met Corey four years ago when we both started working at Texas Roadhouse. He was always smiling and could always make you laugh. He was hardworking, caring and a great person to be around. It came as a shock to everyone to hear that our great friend had passed away. His Texas Roadhouse family is devastated he's gone. But will never be forgotten. For we know that he is in a better place. ,Always Alyssa Martin

I'm so grateful to the Lord, that God would allow Corey to share Life Journey with us! Corey has an illuminating light that shine so bright with love and joy. When you were in his presence you knew you were Loved. He didn't have to say I LOVE YOU.
He had a way of bringing love and fun.
So if you spend any time with Corey it was a great joy and fun thank God you shared a place in Corey's Life journey.

Corey lives in my heart, and as long as I'm alive he lives in me. Love & Joy!
