

Crystal Kine' Arnold

July 1, 1976 - June 19, 2021

Crystal Kine' Arnold was called home on June 19, 2021. To know Crystal was to know an Angel. She had a heart of gold. She was always giving to others even when she did not have a lot to give. She was a woman of her word and she found delight in helping those around her.

Crystal was born July 1, 1976 in St. Louis, Missouri and raised in Compton, California until the age of 17. After graduating from Centennial High school, she along with her family moved to Lithonia, Georgia. She was the daughter of Jerome and Christine Arnold. Crystal was a very spiritual young lady. At a young age she accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. As a child and teen Crystal was always the leader among her friends. She never took any "mess" from anyone. She knew how to protect herself and others. She was the biggest protector of her younger brother Brandon. She loved sports especially basketball and pool. She was fearless and always willing to take on any challenge. She was also very funny. Crystal loved to tell jokes. Crystal began her adulthood in Georgia where she developed lifelong friends and professional relationships. Though she did not have any children of her own she was loved by the kids in her life. She was an excellent auntie, fun and strict when necessary.

Crystal was an entrepreneur. She was a songwriter and performer, she found inspiration through understanding astrology as she assisted others with understanding themselves. Before her departure she was developing her own podcast “The Crystal Kine’ Show”. This was her new baby that she was eager to share with the world. Crystal’s greatest joy was found in spending time with her family and friends. To know her is to love her.

Crystal is preceded in death by her maternal grandfather Sam McCollough, maternal aunt, Sandra Coleman, Paternal grandparents Luetta Arnold and John Lee Arnold, Paternal aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Crystal is survived by her parents Jerome and Christine Arnold, her brother, Brandon Arnold, Sr., her nephew, Brandon Arnold, II, her maternal grandmother, Clarrisa McCollough and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
