“ I just found out on Thanksgiving Day that my bestie had passed. He always calls on every holiday, and when I didn't hear from him, I tried to call him. In all these years of knowing Jeff, his phone has never been off. So, I googled his name and found that he passed in May. I'm shocked that there were no tributes to him, especially from his Q-dogs, whom he shared a brotherhood for eternity. So I'm want to pay tribute to my bestie for being a part of my life. Rest in Heaven my dear friend.
