

Lolita Simmons Bowman

February 22, 1963 - January 7, 2024

Our dearly Lolita Bowman peacefully left us on January 7th, 2024 at the age of 60, after a long battle with her health. But it never stopped her from giving out hugs and love to the ones around her. Lolita's departure reminds us that God's angels are watching over us. On that early Sunday morning the clouds lifted and she was ushered into heaven as she regained her wings. Lolita's departure is gravely felt by her entire family and countless others who loved her deeply in her wide-network of community.

Lolita was a free spirited soul who had a strong passion as an entrepreneur whose main focus was selling women's fashion. Never scared to take on new opportunities, she had endless ideas which included writing and producing a film titled, "Loving Him Loving Me."

Lolita was born and raised in Titusville, Florida, where she had a large community of family and friends. Later in life she moved from Florida and relocated to Georgia with her three kids. Lolita is going home to be with her predeceased mother Geraldine James, brother Johnny Ross, and grandmother Savada Mitchell.

Lolita is survived by her three children: Natasha Simmons, Shakera Bowman (John) and James Bowman. Grandchildren: Briana Hill, Janiyah Bowman, Jordin Bowman, Robert Gordan, Jessica Bowman, Tyleah Gordan, and Ty'reon Gordan. Three siblings: Johnny Ross, (in memory of) Roberta Ramos,(Edwin) and her baby sister Detra Stokes. As well as a host of nieces and nephews.

“Seeing death as the end of life is like seeing the horizon as the end of the ocean.”
