“ May the Lord continue to wrap his outstretched arms to the Chambliss & extended families. Thank you for being a mother to all, whether at basketball events or the performing arts. You blessed the children (and families) that you came in contact with, by being organized, proactive, and tenacious. Your legacy continues through your family. The Lord has called you to your heavenly home, as your earthly work concluded. Thank you Lord and family for sharing her with us.

“ To my beautiful and loving wife,

I don't know where to begin we shared so many amazing moments. I swear I have enough memories of you to resurrect you. The night we met on Peachtree Street in downtown Atlanta I knew you'd be mine. I just didn't know the time would pass by so quickly. I'll forever remember your gorgeous smile and your soft voice. You've given me some of the best years of my life. Our friendship will be everlasting because I'll hold on to it forever. I love you forever. Sleep well beautiful 🥰🕊️

To my sister, one of my very best friends... we loved you, but God loved you more. I truly believe to be absent from the body is to be present with The Lord. I know that's exactly where you are. I am excited that we will see each other again. I will keep you in my heart ☺ Job well done angel, you finished your course appointed. I LOVE YOU always...

*Your sister,
Tory*

To my cousin/sister/mom/bestfriend....there are so many titles you hold for me. There will never be another person on this earth that could give me what I need to get through my tough times. I miss you so so much. You were a gift to us all. It doesn't sting a little bit it hurts tremendously that you are no longer here. I keep waiting on my phone to ring to hear your voice on the other end saying what's up Nettie...or girrrrrllll...but I will never forget the things you taught me. The life lessons I wouldn't have gotten anywhere else. The gifts of you that you have given me I will cherish. It has taken me a minute to come to the realization that you are gone and I don't know when I will be ok. But I know that you are ok. I love that you have no more pain and that you are healed. I love you so much that I can't put it into words...but I promise that I will pour that love into your children. I will be there to back up Aaron every step of the way. Give Maw-Maw and Paw-Paw a kiss for me.

Mrs. Pam

Thank you for treating your granddaughter just like she was one of your own kids, and truly she was and everything you've done for her. We will make sure Karsyn never forgets her "Nana".
