“ To the family of my friend and colleague Shelly Lewis. While my heart is sad, I am overjoyed with the precious memories of my time with Shelly in Human Resources at Emory University. We talked, laughed, cried, sang and shared our hopes and dreams for our children and grandchildren. Anthony and Rayvaen, hold fast to the love of a mother who was your greatest champion and advocate and fiercest defender. She was ever about doing what the Lord has commanded - "Train up a child in the way he/she should go." That training will take you far in this life!!

My sincere condolences.
