

Stephen T. Jackson III

March 15, 1981 - November 2, 2023

Stephen “Steve” T. Jackson III, born on March 15, 1981, in Manhattan, NY was the beloved middle child of Stephen “Steve” T. Jackson Jr and Rosemary Franklin. Known for his vibrant personality and zest for life, Steve was deeply connected to people and had a remarkable ability to positively impact their lives.

On July 6, 2011, Steve married Larresia (Turner) Jackson, embarking on a journey together. Throughout his life, Steve ventured into multiple business endeavors, including MIDWID Maintenance Repairs and most recently, Supreme Family Maintenance. He approached each venture with passion and dedication, always striving to make the most of every opportunity.

Steve is survived by his loving wife Larresia, his father Stephen Jackson Jr., his mother Rosemary Franklin, his children Aeris (16), Aaliyah (3) and Supreme (2). His youngest children’s mother T’ora, sister Kizzy and a large extended family including nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins. Sadly, his youngest sister Stephanie preceded him in death.

Steve’s legacy lives on through the memories and impact he made on the lives of those who knew and loved him. He will be deeply missed but forever cherished in the hearts of his family and friends.
